

Sharing Your Journey

Lloyd and Ardis Peterson Cancer Symposium

A cancer diagnosis is a personal and emotional journey that holds more than medical challenges along the way. Factors such as genetics, financial stress and measuring your quality of life can increase the burden. Learn how to face the different challenges, develop foresight, and engage positivity to help along your cancer journey. This event is free and open to the public.

Lloyd and Ardis Peterson Cancer Symposium | Sat., Nov. 3, 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.***
Wedgewood Cove Golf Club, 2200 W 9th St., Albert Lea

Presentation is free, but space is limited. Register by calling 507-668-2300.

*A complimentary breakfast will be served. Doors open at 8 a.m.